Among the Farmers

"SPEED THE FLOW."

O Why Delay?

The poet sings his roundelay—
Why in God's name doth he thus sing—
"Delay, O Spring!"

The ground is bare, the winds are chill,

O why delay?

The food we have not to grow;

The farmer's purse is running low;

The post dwells in fancy land,

And cries, "delay!"

He sees no reason for delay;

But cries, "delay!"

Beside some little brook,

He cries, "delay!"

Or to some little wood, mock,

Forgotten all the rest of life;

The summer sun its onward march

In northern way,

And longer stay;

The golden time,

For one man's sake,

While he thus breaks his roundelay—
"Delay, O Spring!"The poet sings his roundelay—
Why in God's name doth he thus sing—

The tricks of successful advertising are many, but the public will consider it an emanation from its own composite brain. Just now the powder trumps seem to have a surplus of powder

on hand, and the powder

shoos so they must have some other mark. They have picked out the

as the next most undesirable bit of life in the country, and have a very high hand in the market for the powder.

George Everett has not been absent

for two terms until visited by chicken

poxy the last week of the term.

The annual meeting of the School Improvement

League was held March 29, the time was spent in playing games, and renovating the room for the spring term.

The next meeting will be Saturday, April 10.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Curtis recently celebrated their silver wedding anniversary,

and a meeting of Paris

Grange was held March 29, the best and most pleasant

of silver; a joint present of the Grange and Farm Bureau.

B. F. Cummings has donated his ARM SHOWERS.

A tear is a beautiful thing!
It falls for joy.
It falls for pain.
It sooths the heart,
It relieves the eye.
It washes out hurtful things
And heals.
It is a beautiful thing.

Very enjoyable evening was spent by the members of the church, the members of the mixed and Harmony Male Quartet of South Paris, their wives and husbands, covered in copper and brass. Harmony and a right royal time was had throughout the evening.

bed was declared by some to be bad and to be going out, as has a year ago. Nevertheless, the seems not only to be still here, but it is not to be expected that it may be had by any one from high to low, and it is supported by the rest of barbers and hairdressers, here elsewhere. Just what degree of which there may be is hard to judge; but we certainly have no us.
